

Random Acts of Kindness

A random act of kindness is a way of paying back for all the good you've received. When you do a random act of kindness for someone, sometimes you never know just how happy that has made them feel.

Remember in our story last week when Zacchaeus paid back four times the amount that he took from the people in Jericho? What he did was wrong but he did pay them back and he gave back more than he took.

A random act of kindness is all about doing something that will bring happiness to someone and doing something that they might not expect. So why not have a go at doing some this week?
