	24.10.21 Gender Justice
Start	 Did you know: Women make up less than 24% of the world's parliamentarians; On average, women are paid 24% less than men for comparable work, across all regions and sectors; 153 countries have laws which discriminate against women economically, including 18 countries where husbands can legally prevent their wives from working; Worldwide, 1 in 3 women and girls will experience violence or abuse in their lifetime. (Source: Oxfam)
Discuss	 What steps towards gender justice have we as a society made in the past 100 years? What do we still need to do?
Read	Psalm 139 Image: Chester Road Baptist.org.uk/Watch Chester Road Baptist.org.uk/Talks Listen again Chester Road Baptist.org.uk/Talks
P	 What examples can you think of where laws around gender justice have changed, but attitudes still need to be challenged? Consider 'banter', so-called locker-room talk etc. What reasons do you think there are for this injustice still lingering? How do we know that gender inequality is not God's design for humanity? How and why does His agenda get disturbed along the way? How does Christ's intervention redress the imbalance in God's creation agenda? Can you point to examples from the gospels where Jesus has modelled gender justice? How does the world we live in put pressure on men and women to live defined roles? How does Psalm 139 (esp. v1-6) refute this? How does knowing that God has searched you and knows you give you peace? In the Bible, the sea is often symbolic of chaos: how does this interpretation bring an extra level of meaning to verses 7-12? How could vs 13-18 be comforting and also empowering in the face of injustice? What is the cause of the anger in verses 19-22? How could this be used in prayer today? How do you respond to Paul's teachings about women, for example in 1 Tlmothy 2?

Go further	 Galatians 3: 26-29 - how do you understand this passage in the light of gender justice? How does it work alongside Psalm 139 to teach us about God's agenda for humanity in his image? What does this mean for the way we see each other and relate to each other?
Reflect	 Which one verse stands out to you? Why do you think it grabs your attention? Which verse(s) will you need to think more about? Why? What is God putting on your heart?
د جم در جم Do	Personal: Meditate on Psalm 139. Have a go at repeating: 'You made me.' Social: be alert for instances of gender injustice and look for ways to challenge these.
Pray	Creator God, You made me to be the person you always knew I could be. Thank you that you know Forgive me when Please lead me to In Jesus' name, Amen. Spend some time praying over instances of gender injustices you are aware of - either globally or closer to home.
